With the WHS 2022, the World Health Summit and the World Health Organization are joining forces to foster global health and well-being of all. Tedros Adhanom Ghebreyesus, Director-General, World Health Organization (WHO) said: "Through our enhanced collaboration and the launch of the 2022 Summit, we aim to accelerate progress towards the health-related Sustainable Development Goals and make the world a safer place for all." Axel R. Pries, World Health Summit President emphasized: "We must build our future on improved worldwide health: equitable health everywhere with a healthy planet as the basis. The joint World Health Summit 2022 together with WHO will be the forum to foster these goals."

WHS 2022 is part of a long-term close collaboration, as WHO has been a strong strategic partner of the World Health Summit since its very beginning.
