World Health Summit 2024: Decision-makers and experts from all over the world come to Berlin

Press accreditation open for the world's leading global health conference

Berlin, September 10, 2024

At the World Health Summit 2024 from October 13-15 in Berlin, leading international representatives from a wide range of fields will discuss the most pressing issues in global health. Under the motto "Building Trust for a Healthier World", the focus is on a healthier future for all. On the agenda, among other things: Pandemic threats and responses, mpox, health equity, climate change and health, artificial intelligence, antibiotic resistance and financing global health. Over 350 speakers and several thousand participants from all regions of the world from science, private sector, civil society and politics, including numerous ministers, are expected to attend.

Media representatives can apply now for on-site accreditation at:

Background

The World Health Summit is the international platform for global health. It brings together stakeholders from politics, science, the private sector, and civil society from around the world to set the agenda for a healthier future and well-being for all. The World Health Summit strengthens exchange, stimulates innovative solutions to health challenges, fosters global health as a key political issue, and promotes the global health debate in the spirit of the UN Sustainable Development Goals.

The World Health Summit as a conference and strategic forum takes place every year in October in Berlin with around 3,000 participants on-site and more than 10,000 online and was founded in 2009 at Charité - Universitätsmedizin Berlin.

The World Health Summit 2024 stands under the patronage of German Chancellor Olaf Scholz, French President Emmanuel Macron and the Director-General of the World Health Organization (WHO), Tedros Adhanom Ghebreyesus. The President of the World Health Summit is Prof. Axel R. Pries, the International Presidents 2024 are Prof. Sophia Zoungas and Prof. Christina Mitchell, Monash University in Melbourne, Australia.
