

World Health Summit 2025 - “Taking Responsibility for Health in a Fragmenting World”

The World Health Summit is the international platform for global health. It brings together stakeholders from politics, science, the private sector, and civil society from around the world to set the agenda for a healthier future and well-being for all. The World Health Summit strengthens exchange, stimulates innovative solutions to health challenges, fosters global health as a key political issue, and promotes the global health debate in the spirit of the UN Sustainable Development Goals.

The World Health Summit 2025 takes place from October 12-14 in Berlin, Germany and online under the theme “Taking Responsibility for Health in a Fragmenting World” with more than 350 speakers in over 65 sessions and more than 3,500 participants from around 140 countries. The entire main program of the WHS 2025 will be available online. More

WHS 2025 central topics include:

- Reducing the Burden of NCDs: Prevention, Collaboration & Care
- Artificial Intelligence: From Data to Decisions for Global Health Systems
- Transforming Global Health Architecture: Rethinking Governance & Financing Models
- Peace and Health: Building Bridges for Global Stability and Well-being
- Climate in Crisis, Health at Risk: Equitable Strategies for a Resilient World

Background:

The World Health Summit stands for a science-driven and broad approach to global health development. The key issues are therefore interdisciplinary, science-based, and cross-sectoral. More

The World Health Summit as a conference and strategic forum takes place every year in October in Berlin with around 3,500 participants on site and more than 10,000 online and was founded in 2009 on the occasion of the 300th anniversary of Charité – Universitätsmedizin Berlin. President of the World Health Summit is Axel R. Pries.

The academic network of the World Health Summit is the WHS Academic Alliance, a unique network of leading academic health centers, universities, and research institutions from all over the world. The International Presidency of the WHS Academic Alliance rotates annually among the members.
