WHS Regional Meeting 2025, New Delhi, India

The next annual Regional Meeting of the World Health Summit will take place from April 25-27, 2025 in New Delhi, India.

This first WHS Regional Meeting in India is hosted and organized by NIMS University, with the co-hosts Manipal Academy of Higher Education and Ashoka University. President of the WHS Regional Meeting 2025 and International President of the World Health Summit 2025 is Prof. Balvir S. Tomar, Founder and Chancellor of NIMS University, India.

The meeting will focus on the theme “Scaling Access to Ensure Health Equity.” Across three days, leaders from India, across Asia, and around the world from various sectors, disciplines, and cultures will exchange knowledge, spark new partnerships, inspire fresh research avenues, and explore policies aimed at achieving impactful improvements in health outcomes. Among the topics on the agenda are digital and AI futures, health diplomacy and cooperation, healthcare workforce, innovation and leadership for health equity, planetary health, and health and peace. Sessions will be recorded and made available here.

The theme of the WHS Regional Meeting 2025 is designed to foster scientific and political discourse on how to scale quality health care, usually perceived as a privilege, to ensure health equity and uplift the societal well-being. “I hope the topics and themes discussed foster newer avenues of scientific research and policy making that advance equity of healthcare”, states Prof. Balvir S. Tomar. “It is our duty as leaders and advocates of global health governance to come together as we face common challenges of diseases, disasters, data governance, demographic changes, and others.”

“It is with great pride and privilege, that I welcome you all to the WHS Regional Meeting 2025 in New Delhi, India. On behalf of the WHS Regional Meeting Organizing Committee & NIMS University, I wish you a successful time and experience the rich culture and heritage of India,” said Prof. Balvir S. Tomar.
